

Position title: Mobile Application Development Specialist

Job Purpose:

Provide sustainable mobile apps to various departments that help optimize business processes.

Job Description:

- Work with business and technical team to evaluate and select technical solutions
- Build mobile applications development strategy.
- Assess, design and build P&S and other B2E mobile solutions
- Ensure the mobile application development best practices are applied
- Ensure the quality of the products
- Ensure the code quality and standards
- Investigate and select the most suitable mobile application development platforms and tools
- Continuous improvement and enhancement for all the team activities and processes
- On time and weekly reporting all the projects to ensure achieving the targets which complied with the required KPIs.